

Defence Fire Risk Management Organisation

This is to certify that

WO1 E Bluhme

Successfully completed

Unit Fire Safety Manager (Non-Specialist)
Course 08/18

Held at

The Defence Fire Training & Development Centre

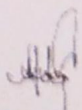

On

16th to 18th October 2018

This certificate is valid for 3 years from the date of issue

C Gordon
Group Manager
Deputy Commandant

D A Devoy RAF
Wing Commander
Commandant

FIRE SAFETY MANAGER COURSE OBJECTIVES

Overview

The course trains military and civilian personnel in the specialist duties and responsibilities of a Unit Fire Safety Manager and the requirements and implications of current legislation. The course has been designed to meet the L3 Award in Fire Safety Management (RQF).

Learning Hours

27 learning hours including assessment against the following criterion.

Award of this certificate indicates that during the course the student has met the required training objectives and Assessment criterion

Manage Fire Safety compliance

Understand fire safety duties attributed to the Responsible Person in accordance with regulatory standards.

Understand fire safety duties attributed to enforcement authorities

Understand fire hazards and risks in premises

Understand fire risk assessments

Understand how fire risk is controlled in premises

Understand the principles of means of escape and evacuation

Understand how to use fire extinguishers.

Understand how to manage fire safety in relation to safeguarding employees from fire.

Understand how to maintain means of escape

Understand routine tests to be taken on active fire safety measures.

Be able to manage in-house fire safety compliance

Be able to use portable firefighting equipment.

